Step 6: After login, go to 'My Shipment Settings' on the right top navigation and click on 'Authorize Account Usage'.

Step 7: Click on 'Grant new Authorization'.

Authorized Account Usage

You can allow others to use your account to create shipments – such as a shipper you use often for import shipments. And best of all – it's secure and personalized! You control your account visibility, payment options and other shipping restrictions. You can also see if you've been granted authorization to use someone else's account.

Step 8: Enter the name of your shipper, nickname and email address. You can also set the shipper's preferred language. If the shipper's email is not registered in MyDHL+, you will be prompted with a message.

The screenshot shows a form with the following fields and values:

- Name: Cindy ✓
- Nickname: Cindy ✓
- Email Address: cindy123@dhl.com ✓
- Email authorization details in the following language: English

A yellow warning box is highlighted with a red oval, containing a warning icon and the text: "This person is not currently registered for MyDHL+. They will have to register to use your account."

The following steps allow you to secure account numbers and restrict usage of your account.

Step 9: Setting Account Numbers

Select your DHL Shipper Account. If you are shipping from overseas, you need to choose an Import Account. You may tick the box "Use the account to pay for transportation charges" if the Billing Account is the same as your Shipper Account, otherwise select from the drop down list. 'Receiver will pay' is preselected for 'Duties and Taxes' but you may change it by selecting an account from the drop-down.

The screenshot shows two sections of the form:

- Shipper Account: A dropdown menu with "Select One" and a "Close" link. Below it is a checkbox labeled "Use this account to pay for transportation charges".
- Transportation charges paid with: A dropdown menu with "Select One" and an asterisk.
- Duties and taxes paid with: A dropdown menu with "Receiver will pay (default)" and a "Close" link. A green checkmark is visible next to the dropdown.

Step 10: Masking Account Numbers

To prevent fraudulent use of your account, you may mask the account number (i.e: 95XXXX123) or display only the Account Nickname.

Step 11: Hiding Rates

You may also choose to show or hide the account rates to your shipper.

Rates VisibilityClose

- Hide - this person will not see my account-based rates
- Show - this person will see my account-based rates

Step 12 : Restricting origin and/or destination addresses

You may authorize the shipper to ship from/to any address or to a specific address.

When you provide a specific address, the shipper will only be restricted to ship from/to the set specific address.
